

Social Security Of Disabled Persons In India

Mrs. Vanaja Kumari

Abstract:

The government of India has been much concerned about the problem of disabled persons in the country and has initiated many social security measures to facilitate their rehabilitation.

The term disabled and handicapped have been replaced by the term challenged and recently the term differently-abled is being used to remove the stigma associated with disabilities.

When individual was unable to take care of his own needs, the society realized the importance of protecting the individual and his family. Modernization and urbanization have resulted in radical socio-economic changes and give rise to new conflicts and tensions consequent upon the erosion of age old family and fraternal security. The transition from agricultural economy to an industrial economy brought in special accompanied problems
